2017 GLOUCESTER TOWNSHIP Tree Lighting

The snow didn't stop Gloucester Township residents as hundreds gathered at Veterans Park this past Sunday for the Mayor and Council's Tree Lighting Ceremony where there was fun to be had for all ages! This event featured a wide variety of entertainment including carousel rides, pony rides, sleigh rides provided by the Public Works Department, Christmas carols sung by Mainstage Center for the Arts, and even an appearance by Santa.

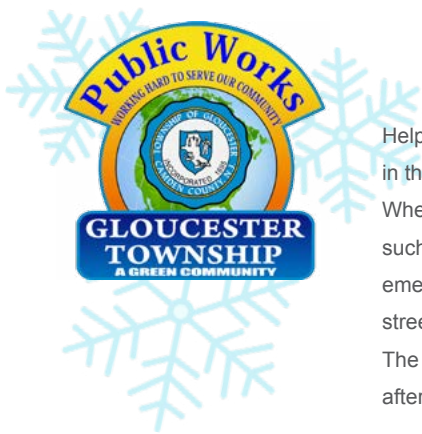

"We would like to wish each and every one of you a Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and the very best for 2018!" said Mayor David R. Mayer before the countdown and lighting of the tree.

If you missed this fun-filled event, we hope to see you there next year!

On Sunday, December 10th, Gloucester Township residents sipped on hot chocolate while listening to Christmas carols sung by Mainstage Center for the Arts. Children had their choice of riding a sleigh, the carousel, a pony, or all of the above!
