Happy Mother's Day!

The Hider Lane Senior Club hosted their annual Mother's Day Luncheon at the Senior Center on May 9th.

On Thursday, May 9th, Mayor David Mayer and the Gloucester Township Economic Development Corporation (EDC) welcomed over 200 guests to the 19th annual Gloucester Township Business Breakfast. This event is the most highly anticipated business event of the year in the township where local business professionals come together to network and honor the Business Breakfast award recipients.

Mayor Mayer and EDC President, Joe Angeloni, discussed the new GT Business Analytics Tool, Arts District, and development along the Black Horse Pike corridor. They also welcomed new businesses to town and thanked all of the sponsors that made the event possible.

This year they presented the following awards: Heritage Award, Small Business Award, Mayor's Award, and Sustainability Award. In addition they presented awards in two new categories: New Business Awards and Community Service Organization Award.

Thank you to everyone who came out and participated in this year's Business Breakfast. Congratulations to all of the award-winning businesses. We hope to see you all next year!

This event was made possible by Mayor Mayer, EDC, and our generous sponsors...
