GTPD Park Patrols- Protecting Our Children & Our Community

In 2010 the Gloucester Township Police Department (GTPD) implemented a community policing model focused heavily on being more visible, interacting with community members and building community trust. Since that time, the GTPD has also improved the use of their Special Law Enforcement Officers (SLEO) Program, specifically by increasing their presence and interaction throughout our township's various community parks. The GTPD has found that involvement in everyday activities, such as visiting our community parks, is an excellent way to engage with our residents.

Today, the Gloucester Township Police Department continues to build upon their community policing strategy by providing additional patrol options for their Special Officers. Beginning on Tuesday, June 18, SLEO's will be operating bicycles while patrolling our parks, which will include a newly acquired GeoOrbital bicycle wheel. Special Officers will also be wearing clearly visible "Hi Viz" police uniforms, be equipped with information cards about upcoming township events, and be ready to engage with patrons at our parks all Summer long. Through these efforts, our Police hope to connect with the community and build their trust while simultaneously keeping them safe and protecting our children.

Megan Knight is a singer/songwriter with a love for all genres of music. State of Mind is the latest EP release from this incredibly soulful and impassioned artist. Her bold vocals coupled with an innocent twang, delivers a righteous performance that stands out from the crowd.

Payton Taylor is a country singer, born and raised in South Jersey, that received a golden ticket to Hollywood on American Idol. She grew up attending Mainstage Center for the Arts' Summer Stage performing arts camp and taking voice, acting, and dance lessons at the Mainstage studio. It was on a trip with Mainstage's Harmony Show Choir to Nashville that Taylor felt the pull to become a Country music artist.

We hope that you'll join us in welcoming Megan and Taylor to Gloucester Township and help us kick off our summer concert series this Monday at 7:00 PM. You don't want to miss it!

Whether you live in the southern, central, or northern section of town, the Gloucester Township Police Department has an event for you! If your development or street is not holding a private National Night Event, be sure to stop by one of the public events. These are free events that are open to all of our residents.

This year the GTPD is asking our residents to show the criminal element that we will not tolerate crime in our neighborhoods. Help them do this by busting out your holiday lights and illuminating your house! Most of us look forward to lighting up our houses for the holidays, but now we have an excuse to light them up in August too. The Best and Brightest House will be featured on the Gloucester Township Police Department's social media pages and receive Bragging Rights!
