Preschool to open back up in fall!

PRESCHOOL UPDATE: Preschool will be opening back up in September! Department of Recreation is waiting on updated capacity guidelines from the state as currently they are limited to registering only 60 children total for both schools. Rec Center plans to hold registration in late June or early July. Registration will be held online and in-person. GT residents first. The cost for GT residents is $645 for the school year, which can be split into 3 payments of $215 (fall, winter spring). The program will move to 4 days a week, 2-hour days (Monday-Thursday) and will be held at 2 locations:

- 3yr old PreK, 9-11am, Point Ariel Park
- 3yr old PreK, 12-2pm, Rec Center
- 4yr old, 9-11am, Rec Center
- 4yr old, 12-2pm, Point Ariel Park

Please contact Diane Jones at dianejones@glotwp.com with any questions.

Energy Assistance Programs

Due to the fact that the State's moratorium on utility shut-offs will expire on June 30th, the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities (NJBP) is launching a "Utility Assistance Week" - May 17th - May 21, 2021. This informational outreach effort is aimed to inform residents of various utility assistance programs. For residents who may need assistance paying bills, it is advised that they contact one of the programs before the moratorium ends.

Utility Assistance Programs:

- Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
