GLoucester Township Police Department WELCOMES NEW OFFICERS!

Gloucester Township Police hired three new Police Officers, which were sworn in on Monday May 9th. Pictured with Chief David Harkins are Ptl. Brian Sarne, Ptl. Ryan Fink, and Ptl. Trevor Swanson.

All three hires are experienced Police Officers from other departments. They will begin patrol tactics training, firearms qualifications, and in-service training at the Gloucester Township Police Professional Standards Training Facility until May 19th.

Upon completion their in-service training, each Officer will report to the Operations Division, be assigned to a Platoon, and begin their field training.

Congratulations!

Summer Youth Employment Program

The Camden County Workforce Development Board will hold an eight-week summer youth employment program that will begin on June 27 and run through Aug. 19. Youth, ages 16 through 24, will gain hands on work experience with employers in the science, technology, engineering and math fields.

“The summer youth employment program offers a unique and worthwhile experience for young people in Camden County,” said Commissioner Jon Young. “Not only are participants paid a $15 an hour stipend, but they are placed with top notch employers who will help them develop their workforce skills and prepare them for the working world.”

To be eligible for the program, you must be a Camden County resident; willing to participate in a structured professional environment; be available for the eight consecutive weeks from June to August; and attend a virtual interview and complete training.

For more information, contact the Camden County Workforce Development Board at (856) 751 -1500 or receptionist@ccwib.com.

Applications can be downloaded at www.ccwib.com

Retire Your Old Flag

The flag drop-of boxes are meant to serve as safe, secure retirement of worn flags for Gloucester Township community and are a convenient way of disposing while respecting our national symbol.

Disposal boxes are located at: Camden County College, Veteran’s Park, and Community Park by Veterans’ Memorial.

Gloucester Township Police welcomes their new summer intern Angelina Esposito, pictured with Deputy Chief Brian McKendry and Captain Jason Gittens!

Angelina is attending Monmouth University, is a Criminal Justice major, and is interested in a law enforcement career. She spends three mornings a week working with GTPD, and is currently being familiarized with the different departments.
