HIDER LANE SENIOR CLUB CELEBRATES 40TH ANNIVERSARY

Thursday, July 14th, Hider Lane Senior Club celebrated their 40th anniversary at the Valleybrook Country Club in Gloucester Township. Mayor David Mayer and Assemblyman Paul Moriarty congratulated the club on this milestone and honored the club with a proclamation from the Senate and General Assembly:

"Located on Hider Lane in Gloucester Township, the Hider Lane Senior Club provides friendship and fosters camaraderie among its many members, thousands since its inception, and it also offers a host of activities to entertain, uplift, and cultivate a sense of community. For forty years, members have gathered to play cards, mah jongg, and bingo, and they have enjoyed each other's company at holiday parties, on day trips to area casinos, and on other excursions. The leaders and members of Hider Lane Senior Club have worked tirelessly and effectively in benefit of their fellow citizens and are recognized and saluted for their exemplary dedication and motivation that have contributed to the organization's sterling reputation."

Hope With Hands Thrift Boutique Receives NPP Business Innovation Grant!

Lisa Burress-Black of Hope with Hands Thrift Boutique in the Downtown Blackwood section of our township received her NPP Business Innovation Grant check this week! Lisa is a recipient of SCORE mentoring provided through the Neighborhood Preservation Program. This program provides personalized support to businesses in the Gloucester Township Arts District NPP Neighborhood by creating solutions to pressing business challenges that are inhibiting business growth and sustainability. Lisa and her SCORE mentor developed a personalized strategy for her business to succeed. We wish Lisa all the best and don't forget to stop by her place at 20 N Black Horse Pike.

Next Concert: July 18th

Arsenal NJ will be performing at Veterans Park starting at 7pm. For more information about the band CLICK HERE.
