“This will be another spectacular residential project from M&T, a joint venture of Edgewood Properties, and a great addition in the growing Gloucester Township market,” said Jack Morris CEO of Edgewood Properties. “This is a fantastic community, and we are thrilled to be a part of it. Mayor Mayer and his team have been outstanding to work with.”

The property, which is within walking distance to Camden County College and the Gloucester Premium Outlets, will include 144 one-bedroom and 216 two-bedroom units, in addition to the hotel. There will be a 5,000 square foot clubhouse, with an outdoor pool, cabana, business center and fitness center.

As part of the project, Davistown Road is being widened, and sewer improvements are being made to accommodate the site. In addition, Edgewood Properties provided extensive environmental remediation on municipal-owned properties that were part of the parcel.

“We are excited to welcome the Lofts at Gloucester Township to our municipality. Edgewood Properties has a long-standing reputation of building high quality communities; and this project will continue our economic development vision of job creation combined with modern living spaces and commercial development,” said Mayor David Mayer.
