GLOUCESTER TOWNSHIP WELCOMES SUPER WAWA ON BLACKWOOD-CELEMENTON RD!

The crowd started forming at 5:30 am this morning to welcome Super Wawa to Gloucester Township on Blackwood-Clementon Road.

The patrons were eagerly waiting for the 8-am store opening and enjoyed free t-shirts, hot cups of coffee and a meet-and-greet with Wawa's mascot Wally Goose!

Gloucester Township Police and Blackwood Fire Company participated in the "Hoagies for Heroes" competition on who can make the most hoagies in 3 minutes. "It was a heart-pounding, highly stressful competition," says GTPD.

Mayor Mayer, Assemblywoman Gabriela Mosquera, Councilwoman Helen Albright Troxell, and the President of Gloucester Township Economic Development Partnership Corporation Dennis Paris congratulated the Wawa staff and wished them well as they joined our growing community!
