Mainstage Center for the Arts, in collaboration with Triple Threat Theatre Productions, is thrilled to announce the upcoming performances of “SpongeBob: The Musical” at the Camden County College’s Dennis Flyer Theater, located at 200 College Dr.
 Under the expert direction of Triple Threat Theatre’s founder, Andy Boettcher, this production promises to bring the beloved characters of Bikini Bottom to life in an entertaining and visually stunning musical extravaganza.
 Don’t miss the chance to experience the whimsical world of Sponge-Bob SquarePants and his friends as they embark on a hilarious and heartwarming adventure. The cast and crew have been hard at work, ensuring that this production captures the essence of the beloved animated series while delivering a unique and unforgettable theatrical experience. CLICK HERE to buy tickets.

2024 CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY: ENROLLMENT IS OPEN

In a continuing effort to foster an even better police community partnership, the Gloucester Township Police Department would like to invite any Gloucester Township residents 16 years of age or older to attend the 2024 Citizens Police Academy!

The Gloucester Township Police Department Citizens Police Academy is a free 14 week course that begins January each year. The classes are held on Thursday evenings from 6:30 PM to approximately 8:30 PM. The course includes an overview of the police department and the administration, police communications, special operations, criminal investigations, traffic safety, K9, Special Response Team, Crime Scene Unit and much more. The attendees of the Citizen Police Academy are also trained in the use of CPR.
