BUSINESS BREAKFAST: Meet the Honorees!

Heritage Award - Hilltop Garden Center

Hilltop Garden Center has been providing Gloucester Township and surrounding towns with high quality plants and service for over 35 years. The veteran-owned business prides itself on supporting their community while delivering superior products all year 'round. From large selection of hanging baskets, patio pots, and vegetable flats in the spring and summer, to classic decorating specials and Christmas trees in the fall and winter, Hilltop Garden Center has all you need to decorate your home!

Small Business Award - Epic Merchant Systems

EPIC Merchant Systems is a veteran-owned business that specializes in Federal Firearm License (FFL) related merchant accounts. They help customers find the best plan for their FFL business while saving money. FFL businesses are not high risk with us, and our banks won't hold your funds like other processors do." They offer their clients a Zero Payment Program, Traditional Interchange Plus, Tiered, and Custom merchant service accounts.

Small Business Award -Embrace Restaurant

Embrace Restaurant is a new eatery in the Sicklerville section of Gloucester Township. Owned and operated by a former NYPD police officer and veteran of both Desert Storm and Desert Shield, Aykine Hicks along with her husband Alex Hicks. Alex is a pastor and chef at Embrace Restaurant, and together with Aykine, they are proud to offer their patrons delicious home cooking combined with ministry and generosity in the spa-like atmosphere of their restaurant. Embrace also offers meals to several disadvantaged and displaced families and serves our hometown veterans for free every Wednesday.
