Bar None Band

Sherry Lynn and the Bar None Band to Rock the Stage at Sounds of the Summer Concert Series on Monday, July 15th!

Get ready for a night of toe-tapping music as Sherry Lynn, the acclaimed singer-songwriter, and the Bar None Band take center stage at the Sounds of Summer Concert Series on Monday. Presented by Gloucester Township in association with Mainstage Center for the Arts, this unforgettable performance will be held at Veteran's Park in Gloucester Township.

Sherry Lynn, born in Youngstown, Ohio, discovered her passion for music at a young age and was inspired by iconic artists like Patsy Cline, Loretta Lynn, and Reba McEntire. She began her professional music career in 2008 with the release of her debut album, "Lucky in Love," which garnered widespread attention and featured hit singles like "What a Day to Shake a Heartache" and "Girls Will Be Girls." Her musical journey continued with the critically acclaimed release of "A Beautiful Life" in 2013, cementing her position as a rising star in the country music scene. Sherry Lynn's soulful vocals and heartfelt songwriting have won her a dedicated fanbase and accolades from both critics and fellow artists alike.

In addition to her solo success, Sherry Lynn is a valued member of the Bar None Band, one of SJ's Premier High Energy Cover Bands! Featuring two of South Jersey's Power House Vocalists, the Bar None Band delivers a fusion of country classics and original hits, keeping audiences on their feet throughout every show. Sherry Lynn's powerful vocals add an extra layer of magic to the band's performances, making their collaborations an absolute delight for music enthusiasts.

Admission to the concert is free, making it the perfect opportunity for fans of country music to come together and enjoy a night of exceptional entertainment. Attendees are encouraged to bring their lawn chairs, friends, and family to savor the sounds of Sherry Lynn and the Bar None Band at Veteran's Park.
