Circle S: Second Chance Ranch Foundation Brings Healing and Hope to Gloucester Township

Gloucester Township proudly welcomed Circle S: Second Chance Ranch Foundation with a ribbon cutting ceremony at their farm. Mayor David R. Mayer, joined by Dennis Paris, President of the Economic Development Partnership of Gloucester Township, celebrated alongside founders Hilary and Kevin, marking the official opening and the meaningful mission behind the foundation.

Founded by Hilary, who is over 14 years sober, and her husband Kevin, a U.S. Marine Corps veteran, Circle S was born from their shared journey of healing and second chances. What began with the rescue of a horse just before slaughter has grown into a nonprofit dedicated to equine-assisted therapy—offering hope, connection, and purpose to both animals and people, especially veterans and first responders coping with PTSD.

To launch their new Equine Assisted Therapy Program, Circle S will host an Open House on July 19th from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM for veterans and first responders. Guests are invited to meet the horses, tour the farm, and learn how this unique program helps build healing through connection.

The addition of Circle S: Second Chance Ranch Foundation to Gloucester Township reflects the spirit of service, resilience, and community that makes our township so special. Their heartfelt mission brings healing to animals and people alike, and we are proud to support their journey. To learn more, CLICK HERE!
